The Turkish Ambassador.

Washington, Sep. 20.

Mr. Webster, being independent, the Turkish Ambassador was not present to receive the President today.

He will be to-morrow, when Mr. Webster will extend the extraordinary honor of calling at the Ambassador's Hotel, personally, to take him into the cabinet thinking this proper respect to the Sultan's noble conduct towards the Hungarians and the Americans in his dominion, as well as a mark of hospitality to his agent.

In Norway it is estimated that the number of persons who are preparing to emigrate to America, amounts to 20,000, being two per cent. on the entire population of the kingdom. From the commune of Lovdal alone, which contains 5,195 inhabitants, 663 individuals are about to embark for New York.

We learn that WILLIAM GOODING, of Lockport, and who, for a long time, has been connected with our canal as Chief Engineer and otherwise, has been appointed Surveyor General of Oregon by the present administration. This is a good appointment, and will be satisfactory to the people.

We hope this collection will meet the favor and success of which it is deserving.—N. Y. Recorder.

Mr. Taylor shows great taste, and no pains have been spared to make up to the very best of our means to obtain the parts, by their expressiveness, which always varies with the subject, and by their uniformly aristocratic. *** And last but not least the work is more beautifully and clearly printed than any work which we remember of the kind.—N. Y. Tribune.

We believe the book is greatly superior to any that has preceded it, and we think it may easily be sold at a price considerably higher than the Golden Lyre.

Now Ready.

The New Golden Lyre.

A NEW collection of church music, adapted to the various mœurs now in use, together with a great variety of new anthems, sentences, and chœurs for choirs, singing classes, musical associations, and social, sacred music circles, by W. C. TAYLOR, author of Taylor's Sacred Minstrel, "Choral Union," &c.

We have examined this new collection of church music, and would add our favorable opinion of its merits, to the many encomiums it has elicited.—N. Y. Evangelist.
